Departure in temperature yesterday second volume is all in type and will begin to roll off the presses in Tucson very shortly. The entire edition will amount to about 8000 copies.
PASTOR WHEELER DIES—Rev. Fred W. Wheeler, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist church died early yesterday morning at his home 805 North Seventh street after a lingering illness. He was forty-two years old, a native of Wisconsin and had lived in Arizona about seven years. He leaves his wife, five brothers and one sister. The funeral will be held this morning from the Seventh Day Adventist church, Third and Pierce streets, Rev. H. G. Thurston, former pastor of the church, but now of California, officiating. Burial will be made in Greenwood cemetery.
NOT MANY HUNTERS—Maricopa county for a section that is fairly populous in feathers and furred game has singularly few hunters or else most of the nimrods do it on the sly. The clerk of the board of supervisors did a man out of four bits yesterday in return for a slip of yellow paper and then turned sadly to his confere, "This is the hundredth half dollar. I wish a German or something could come here for a license. He would have to pay a hundred bones. Irish? Oh, they are not foreigners today, and we'd have to let them hunt for nothing," and he pointed to the bit av th' grane he was wearing in his posse pocket.
HOBNOBBED WITH THE HIGH-EST—J. O. Dunbar, editor of the Arizona Democrat returned to the city on Sunday night from Washington where he went to witness the inauguration of a democratic president, a phenomena which he had never expected to see again. While there he met almost everybody worth meeting among whom was Secretary Bryan who inquired solicitously about Phoenix, many of its citizens and especially Dr. H. A. Hughes. As to the appointments, Mr. Dunbar says that without the slightest doubt Judge Sawtelle of Tucson will be appointed to the federal bench and in his opinion J. P. Dillon will be appointed United States marshal and T. A. Flynn of Flagstaff, United States district attorney and Col. Weedon and J. J. Birdno to the land office. Contrary to announcement that President Wilson would permit all incumbents to serve out the terms for which they have been appointed, Mr. Dunbar believes that the changes will be made as fast as the powers that be can "get around to it."

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED—Francisco Cota and Amelia Lopez of Maricopa county; Martin Martinez and Ramona Micnoz both of Maricopa county.

PEORIA COUPLE WEDS—Francisco Cota and Amelia Lopez were united in marriage by Judge P. P. Parker yesterday. After the wedding the happy couple left for their future home in Peoria.

ANOTHER BOOTLEGGER—Frank Lee, the Chino-Mexican bootlegger, will be given a hearing in Judge Johnston's court this morning, this is the third time that he has been arrested for the illegal selling of liquor.

RETURNED FROM SAD ERRAND—H. D. Marshall Jr., cashier of the Phoenix National Bank returned yesterday morning from Unionville, Mo., where he went to attend the funeral of his grandfather, H. D. Marshall of the Unionville National Bank. He was accompanied on his return by an uncle C. A. Marshall also a banker who will spend a month in the city.

A FINE PIECE OF WORK—The following from the Pacific Printer, an authority on such matters, is highly complimentary of the achievements of "The Republican" job office: "The Phoenix Republican Print Shop, which has been overhauled and put in first class working condition, recently turned out an exceptionally fine piece of work in a three-color book for the Roosevelt Irrigated Land Company. Another attractive 16-page booklet was issued in two colors for the Norton Dairy. Fred Adams, a printer of thirteen years' experience, supervised both jobs, and received many compliments. The half tone work, color work, make ready and general typography was highly commended. The Republican Print Shop is making a specialty of pictorial booklets and advertises one of the finest selections of cuts and decorative borders in the southwest."

MARTINEZ-MICNOZ—Martin Martinez and Ramona Micnoz were married by Judge Phillips yesterday morning in the judge's chambers at the county court house.

MRS. REYNOLDS SICK—Mrs. R. Reynolds, wife of a prominent rancher who lives about six miles west of this city is very ill with pneumonia.

NO MORE MENINGITIS—According to City Health Officer Sargent no new cases of cerebro-spinal meningitis were reported yesterday and there were no deaths. The schools were closed as was announced and it is felt that the situation could not be better in hand.

BISHOP RETURNS—Rev. J. W. Atwood, bishop of the Episcopal district of Arizona, returned yesterday from Tucson, where in Grace church on Sunday he confirmed a class of ten. In the evening he occupied the pulpit and preached an interesting sermon on "The Early British Church."

WAS "BAD" MAN—The police arrested Florentine Luna yesterday at Lincoln and Sixth streets. Luna had locked himself in a room after terrorizing the neighborhood. Those who waited for the officers insisted that the man had a gun and meant business. The door was finally forced open and Luna was arrested. His "gun" proved to be a tin stove shovel.

NOONDAY SERVICE—Services were held yesterday at noon in Trinity Pro-Cathedral, Dean Scarlett officiating. The special Lenten service began at 12:05 o'clock and was concluded at 12:25 o'clock. Afterwards the ladies of the parish served luncheon in the parish house. These services will continue today, Wednesday and Thursday. On Friday there will be a three hour service from 12 o'clock until 3 o'clock.

RECLAMATION OFFICIALS—Engineers Davis and Hill are at the Roosevelt dam today studying the structure with an eye out for wear and defects, which they have not yet been able to detect. They make a trip up the power canal today and will return to Phoenix tomorrow. Project Engineer C. H. Fitch is acting as their guide and convoy. While the big boys are away, the fellows in the offices are getting their heads together on a dinner to the visiting officials at the Adams tomorrow night.

TOOK A WATCH—Venturino Sortillon decided that Frank Martinez did not need a watch, so he proceeded to relieve Martinez of the responsibility of carrying one. Sortillon then sold the watch for the sum of two bits and the purchaser took the watch to the original owner for repairs. Martinez then proceeded to have Sortillon arrested and this was done with the aid of Policeman Higley of the city police. Sortillon was given a hearing before Judge Johnstone yesterday and was held to answer in the sum of $500.

JOE CONNERS HERE—Registered from Tucson is Joe Connors, the Arizona "Who's Who" man. Connors announced yesterday that "Who's Who" will have to come out in two sections, and that section one goes to press today. He is dividing the book so as to put the Boost, the Mining and general state stuff in the first volume which will amount to about 300 pages. The second volume is all in type and will begin to roll off the presses in Tucson very shortly. The entire edition will amount to about 8000 copies.

PASTOR WHEELER DIES—Rev. Fred W. Wheeler, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist church died early yesterday morning at his home 805 North Seventh street after a lingering illness. TUCSON ATTORNEY—Silvester W. Purcell, a well known Tucson attorney is in Phoenix on legal business.

CAME BACK TO PHOENIX—W. H. Seelye for a long time in charge of the prescription department of Boehmer's Drug Store but who has lately been on the coast, returned yesterday to take a position in the Hotel Adams Pharmacy.

WOODMAN CIRCLE BALL—The annual ball of the Woodman's Circle will be held in Patrick hall, Monday evening, March 24. The affair has been under preparation for several weeks every member of the organization working to make it the greatest social success of any event ever held by the order. In the work the ladies are being ably assisted by the Woodmen and it is predicted that there will be a record breaking attendance. Tickets are now on sale in the hands of the members and these include admission and refreshments. The best music obtainable has been secured for the occasion.

The state of Washington is trying to regain lands valued at $29,000,000 through a bill which will ask for an appropriation to survey 730,000 acres of school lands now within forest reserves.

TARIFF AGAIN CITED

democratic adherents to the "tariff for revenue only" declaration. Up jumped Mr. Talliaferro, of Florida, and, in accents of grief and anguish, exclaimed:

"That is a very unfair statement. It was only 30 or 32 per cent."

Mr. Tillman was quick to reassure his pained colleague.

"I am not complaining of the duty on pineapples," he said. "I am only talking about what we are proposing to do as to tea."

Somehow the statesmen on the republican side of the chamber remained obdurate and Mr. Tillman saw he could not succeed with them on the plea of a "tariff for revenue only."

So for a moment he boldly confessed the truth.

"I have demonstrated," he said, "beyond all possibility of reasonable dispute that this is a protective duty which will develop the tea industry of the south."

Frankness like that however was as unpalatable to the "tariff for revenue only" patriots of the south as had been his "tariff for revenue only" protestation to the standpat republican patriots of the north, and so Mr. Tillman finally came to an exact confession of the whole truth.

"I say 'protection' on the other side," he explained, "but I want $9,000,000 'for revenue' on this side."

Thus is illustrated the complete fidelity of democratic statesmen to the great constitutional doctrine of "tariff for revenue only."

HIS BATTING OPTIO APPEARS UNDIMMED

Joe Jackson, second best batsman in the American League last year, celebrated the inauguration of his spring training with the Cleveland Naps at Pensacola a few days ago by boosting the first ball pitched to him over the right field fence, four hundred feet from the home plate. Joe declares that he is going to give Ty Cobb a merry race for the leading honors this year.
